VOL. XXV, NO. 2 GAINESVILLE, FLORIDA, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1908 TEN CENTS A WEEK

HE IS NOT DISTURBED

Roosevelt Not Troubled by Wall Street Outcry.

COUNTRY IS SAFE, HE SAYS

President Says He Was Never More Determined to "Destroy Anarchy at the Top and Anarchy at the Bottom of Society."

New York, Feb. 11.—The Rev. Dr. J. Wesley Hill, pastor of the Metropolitan Methodist Temple, in a speech eulogizing President Roosevelt at a banquet of the Delaware Valley society at the Manhattan hotel, related the incidents of a personal visit to the president in Washington, which occasioned much applause from the banqueters, Dr. Hill said:

"I was down in Washington and met that bundle of nervous energy, courage and gray matter, whose name is Theodore Roosevelt. When I entered the White House, President Roosevelt grasped me by the hand and remarked, 'Come in, I am glad to see you. Thank God while the bankers and brokers down in Wall street have largely turned their backs upon me, I am glad that at least one preacher still remembers the way to the White House.'

"I replied, 'Well, Mr. President, the post mortem has not been declared yet.'

"To this, the president said: 'I was never more alive than at the present moment and never more determined to destroy anarchy at the top and anarchy at the bottom of society. There has been lots of howling on all sides down there, but as long as the howling keeps up and the atmosphere is filled with curses and maledictions of men who are hurt, the country is safe.'"

PRESIDENT ENTERTAINED.

Chief Executive Enjoys Circus Given by Boys

Washington, Feb. 11.—President Roosevelt's keen enjoyment of the pranks of many juvenile clowns and the acrobatic accomplishments of a score of boys in tights, featured the indoor circus of the boys of the Young Men's Christian association held here recently.

The White House party of visitors consisted of the president, Mrs. Roosevelt and Miss Ethel. Quentin, the youngest son of the family, was a much applauded clown in a suit of domino calico. The hit of the show was the refusal of a big polar bear to answer the repeated call of "Teddy," and his dignified response to the name of Theodore. The president was entertained for more than an hour by the varied program, which was likewise applauded by several hundred friends of the youngsters.

JAPAN'S GREAT EXHIBITION.

The Ground Will Cover Total Area of 290 Acres.

Tokio, Feb. 11.—Aoyama, one of the highest and most healthful parts of Tokio, it is officially announced, has been chosen as the site for the grand exhibition of Japan, to be held from April 1 to Oct. 31, 1913.

Aoyama lies in the Akasaka section of the city, not far from the imperial palace and near the important administration building of the government.

The exhibition grounds will cover a total area of 282 to 290 acres of land. For this 124 acres of the Aoyama parade ground will be used, 132 acres of Yoyogi imperial land and the remainder from Kitamachi Aoyama.

Thus far a number of nations have sent their approval of the exhibition to the Japanese government.

Stole Mme. Loubet's Shoes.

Paris, Feb. 11.—The ingenious thief who stole the other day a pair of shoes which Mme. Loubet had just bought for her son was arrested. His only excuse in court was that he wished to make a footwear collection belonging to celebrities. He presented himself at the Loubet mansion soon after the shoes were brought and obtained them from the maid under the plea that they needed some repairs.

DEAD MAN AS STEERMAN.

Party in Bobsleigh Have Thrilling Experience.

Geneva, Feb. 11.—The spectacle of a runaway bobsleigh with a dead man sitting at the steering wheel was witnessed by the alarmed villagers along the mountain road between Leysin and Sepoy.

The tragedy nearly caused the loss of four lives instead of one.

Four Swiss tourists had procured a large bobsleigh for the steep run from Leysin, a lofty village nearly three miles above Sepoy.

One of their number, named Dercherg, who had considerable experience in bobsleighing, acted as steersman.

The quartet made several descents in safety, but the terrific speed was too exhausting for Derchen, who was subject to heart disease. Shortly after the bobsleigh left Leysin on one of its trips, the man sitting behind Derchen saw him sway slightly and his head drop forward.

His hands still remained on the steering wheel but the bobsleigh was not under control.

The other passengers thought that Derchen had fainted, but as they were unable to reach the wheel, or stop the bobsleigh, decided to hold on and trust to luck.

The bobsleigh traveled through Sepoy at lightning speed, narrowly missed two other bobsleighs, and dashed into a fountain.

Dorchen's three friends received serious injuries, and Derchen himself was found to have died from heart disease.

RAILROAD CLERKS MEET.

120 Gather at an Informal Luncheon at the Hotel Lanier.

Macon, Ga., Feb. 11.—An enthusiastic meeting of the order of railway clerks of the state was held in Macon Saturday at an informal luncheon at the Hotel Lanier. Affairs were discussed. More than 120 members were present.

While there was nothing of antagonism toward their employers expressed in the meeting, the clerks showed themselves strongly interested in any change of policy of the roads that might affect salary or employment.

Methods of handling traffic and other matters touching the business of the railway clerks occupied the attention of the meeting. The session was adjourned to meet the second Sunday in April in Columbus. Representatives of the order from several states wre present.

SPAIN'S ROYAL SPORT.

During Year 2,280 Bulls and 2,720 Horses Were Killed.

Madrid, Feb. 11.—A new circus is being built in this city for bull fights which will seat over 17,000 people.

In 1907 2,280 bulls and 2,720 horses were killed in the sport. Of human lives seven were lost, including that of Toreador Montes, who died in the arena last January and whose death was considered a national loss.

Then there was the death of the "Bandillero" Melito, who, happening to be present at a bull fight and not being satisfied with the way the performance was being conducted, leaped into the arena. The enraged bull soon put him to death.

During the past year eighty-two persons were severely wounded, most of them matadores.

Guard Rail Saves Train.

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 11.—A heavy iron and cement guard rail on the Wabash railroad bridge over the Huron River at French Landing, about thirty miles west of here, saved the fast New York-Chicago train, which was derailed early Saturday by the spreading of a rail, from falling into the river. The engine did not leave the rails. All five passenger cars behind the baggage car jumped and when the train was stopped several of them were resting against the guard rail, after having scraped against it for a number of feet.

Charles W. Morse Not Talking.

Queenstown, Feb. 11.—When the steamship Etruria stopped here C. W. Morse, of New York, who is a passenger, refused to be disturbed. He sent word that he had nothing to say regarding his affairs.

RELATIONS STRAINED

War Cloud Said to Hover Over Russia and Turkey.

TROUBLED STATE OF AFFAIRS

Russia Is Alarmed at Move Being Made by Turkey—Will Execute a Formidable Military Demonstration to Overawe Turks.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 11.—The Russo-Turkish relations have entered upon a menacing phase. Alarmed at the unchanged Turkish penetration of Persia and the mobilization in Armenia, the Russian government has decided to execute a formidable military demonstration in reply to the Turko-Persian frontier, despatching there a compact expedition of 60,000 select troops from central Russia with full war equipment, and it is acting with uncommon rapidity with a view to overawing the Turks by a decisive exhibition of force.

The war office has drawn up plans of the expedition and submitted them hurriedly for legislative enactment to the duma.

The committee on national defense assembled in virtually closed session. A representative of war briefly and impressively outlined the Turkish preparation on which Russia is fully informed and asked for an oen credit for the maintenance of an army of 60,000. He met with the president's argument of economy, saying that Russia had expended blood and treasure in Manchuria in vain, owing to the initial backwardness in armament. The empire's prestige in the middle east, he said, is now also in the balance, and Russia must be prepared to defend it.

M. Guchkoff, leader of the Octoberist party, in a speech said that the majority in the duma were Russian patriots and willing to part with their "last shirt" to defend the fatherland. The committee in a high pitch of patriotism passed the appropriations unanimously.

At the same session the war office obtained sanction for a further item of $10,000,000 to create a floating battery along the Baltic, which, owing to the weakness of the navy, is at the mercy of Germany.

"DRY" PEOPLE ISSUE CALL.

National Prohibition Convention is to Meet in Columbus, O.

Columbus, O., Feb. 11.—Fifteen hundred and twelve delegates and as many alternates are provided for in the official convention which will meet in Columbus July 15 to nominate candidates for president and vice president. The call was sent out by Mr. Charles H. Jones, chairman, and W. C. Calderwood, secretary of the prohibition national committee. It is expected that fully 5,000 persons will attend.

The call opens with congratulations to the people of the United States over the progress of temperance legislation and recites the accession of Oklahoma, Georgia and Alabama to the ranks of prohibition states.

Each state and territory is to have four delegates at large; each state entitled to an additional delegate for every two hundred votes or major fraction thereof cast for Dr. Silas C. Swallow for president in 1904; the District of Columbia entitled to two delegates and each state and territory to have as many alternates as delegates.

MINER'S HARROWING STORY.

With Broken Leg and Horribly Burned, He Crawled to Safety.

Birmingham, Ala., Feb. 11.—I. C. Dalrymple, assistant superintendent of Mine No. 4, at Wylam, tells a harrowing story of his escape from death in the gas explosion Saturday which cost Mine Boss R. E. Harrell his life.

The men were inspecting an unused portion of the mine and although the explosion occurred shortly after 1 p. m., they were not discovered until nearly 9 o'clock Saturday night.

Harrell was about thirty feet in advance of Dalrymple when the explosion occurred. Harrell's death was instantaneous and when Dalrymple regained consciousness was in total darkness with his right leg broken. His left knee was badly crushed and he was horribly burned about the face and head. In this condition he crawled over twenty feet to an air current where he again lost consciousness and when found by searchers his body was almost entirely submerged with water.

The physicians say that he may, possibly, live, though his condition is quite critical.

EXPLOSION OF AN OIL STOVE.

One burned to Death and Three Are Badly Injured.

Philadelphia, Feb. 11.—The explosion of an oil stove in the home of Walter Clifford, where a small family reunion was being held Saturday in the northeastern section of the city, resulted in the death of Mrs. Jennie Thomas and the serious injury of three other persons.

Mrs. Clifford was entertaining her friends at the piano, when the stove exploded, throwing oil over Mrs. Thomas, who was burned from head to foot and died shortly after being admitted to a hospital. Mrs. Clifford was also severely burned and is in a serious condition and both Walter and Ernest Clifford were painfully burned about the face, neck and arms. They, too, are in a hospital.

LIFE TOO DULL FOR GIRL.

Russian Girl of 20 Shot Herself to Death in a Forest.

Geneva, Feb. 11.—A Russian girl, aged 20, a refugee from justice, shot herself dead in a forest near Lindau, recently.

She left a letter enclosed in a volume of Tolstoi explaining that she had taken her life because she found it too dull and asking to be buried as a pauper as she did not wish to reveal her identity.

She recently arrived from Odessa, and made no secret of having been imprisoned for a political offense and her escape. Although she wrote letters, she never received replies, but every month received money.

Dynamite Used on Grocery Store.

Pittsfield, Mass., Feb. 11.—An attempt was made to blow up with dynamite the grocery store and tenement occupied by Antonio Fio. The force of the explosion threw Fio, his wife, and three children, out of their beds, smashed the door and all the windows on that side of the house, and broke windows in houses 50 and 75 feet distant. No one, however, was hurt. The police arrested Gregario Tesco, 27 years of age, as a suspicious character.

Paid $3,600 for a Book.

Paris, Feb. 11.—A special copy of the "Imitation of Christ," published in 1824, the authentic translation by the Abbe Lamennais, recently was bought by a stranger in a monastery of the Haute Loire for $3,600. It is believed that the purchaser was an American collector and that the book is worth more than he paid for it.

Store and Restaurant Burns.

Macon, Ga., Feb. 11—Fire destroyed the store occupied by Charles Turner and a negro restaurant on Hay street Sunday night. The quick response of the fire department saved other valuable property.

Unemployed, He Killed Himself.

Tampa, Fla., Feb. 11.—W. F. Emerson, white, of Long Island, committed suicide in his room at a Franklin street lodging house by taking wood alcohol. He was out of employment.

ICE KING REIGNED

Blizzard of Great Intensity Hits Sunny South.

WORST SPELL OE WINTER

Snow, Sleet and Rain Make Conditions Most Unpleasant—Electric Car Lines Were Put Out of Business by Ice-Covered Wires.

Atlanta, Feb. 11.—The city experienced some of the worst weather of the winter Sunday night and Monday morning.

Snow, sleet and ice were greatly in evidence, and as a result business of all kinds was interrupted or entirely suspended.

Trolley cars were quickly put out of commission, the wires being heavily coated with ice, making the operation of the various city lines impossible.

The people living in the suburbs and those who work in the city were compelled to walk over ice-coated roadways or pavements or else stay at home.

Sleet and ice predominated all over the country.

Telegraphic communication with other cities was sadly demoralized. The press service was interrupted the greater part of Monday morning, and as a consequence news from the outside world was scarce.

The weather bureau predicts warmer weather, and a thaw will soon restore conditions to normal.

Atlanta experienced a repetition of the winter three years ago, when the trees, telegraph and telephone poles were strewn promiscuously in the streets and roadways. All during the night of Sunday the crashing of the limbs of trees was heard and the citizens Monday morning witnessed the sight of broken telegraph and telephone poles, entangled and twisted wires and limbs of shade and fruit trees hanging in dangerous suspense and littering the ground.

The damage at present cannot be estimated, but will, no doubt, run into the thousands.

BANKER SUICIDES.

Ill Health and Financial Worry Are Given as the Cause.

Fort Worth, Tex., Feb. 11.—L. C. Hutchins, 50 years of age, second vice president of the Fort Worth National bank, and one of the most prominent financiers of this section of Texas, committed suicide Saturday by shooting himself through the head with a revolver.

Mr. Hutchins' body was found by the porter in the toilet room of his banking house. He was stretched on his back, his arms folded across his chest and with a revolver tightly clutched in his right hand. Death had been instantaneous, the bullet having penetrated his brain. Mr. Hutchins left home at 9 o'clock Saturday morning for his office, telling his family that he had some matters to straighten out preparatory to leaving for a vacation.

Bank officials declare that the dead man's business affairs are in excellent shape. Ill health and mental worry produced by the recent financial panic is given as the cause of suicide.

Nantucket Lightship Safe.

Boston, Mass., Feb. 11.—Anxiety as to the safety of the Nantucket Shoals lightship No. 87, which has been out of wireless communication with that shore since last Thursday morning, was set at rest when the steamship San Jose, from Port limon, Costa Rica, reported that she passed the lightship in her station and all was apparently well aboard. The San Jose arrived here late Monday.

$100,000 in Buildings.

Montgomery, Ala., Feb. 11.—Bids are asked by the trustees of the Polytechnic institute, at Auburn, for a $50,000 library building and orders issued for plans for an agricultural building to cost $70,000.

PRESIDENT MIGHT ACCEPT THIRD TERM

In Event Secretary Taft Cannot be Nominated.

EXTRACTS FROM HIS MESSAGE

President Says Actions of Administration Have Not Brought on Business Depression—Favors Governmental Control of Corporations.

Special Correspondence The Daily Sun.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 11.—There has been such a plethora of politics during the past week that only the major matters can be disposed of here. The principal event has been the special message of President Roosevelt to Congress, which has resulted in a great division of opinion among Republicans and somewhat among Democrats. The general trend of opinion is that the message is intended to promote a third term in case it appears that Secretary Taft cannot secure enough delegates to the National convention to nominate him. Some believe that a bold stroke will be attempted by the President, such as a "brush" between our fleet and that of Japan, so as to make his renomination imperative and so arouse public feeling on the "yellow peril" that the political danger of the third term would be lost in the shuffle.

For my own part I do not agree with these views of the selfishness of the President. I feel confident he is not figuring on a third term, and is only intent on perpetuating what he pleases to call "my policies." The great majority of the Republican members of Congress would have received the message in silence, but they were spurred on to rival the repeated Democratic demonstrations that accompanied its reading. The Democratic members generally do not indorse many of the policies advocated by President Roosevelt, but the glum looks of many of their Republican friends on the other side of the aisle as the potent points were read and which, as some Republicans said, was bound to prolong the panic, was too good a chance to be lost for ironical cheering.

That the President's message was a defiance of those who are opposing "my policies" and was intended to overwhelm some of those "greater Republicans" who have heretofore financed Republican campaigns, because they have now declared they will no longer do so, is apparent from the words of the President that: "The attacks upon the administration are made principally in the interest of the Standard Oil trust and of certain notorious railroad combinations." Then to arouse popular feeling the President further declared: "The extraordinary violence of the assaults upon the Government's policy and the enormous sums of money spent, evidence the terror the corrupt men of vast wealth feel in the very marrow of their being."

President Roosevelt is fighting for his political life against nine-tenths of the Republican leaders who are backed by "malefactors of great wealth," and this message of his was evidently intended to put those Republicans who are opposing him on the defensive by publicly denouncing those interests who are backing them in the fight for control of the party. The President has been so angered by the secret and open opposition that he let down the usual bars that guard executive utterances that would be likely to affect business disastrously. He defiantly said: "The business which is hurt by the movement for honesty is the kind of business which in the long run it pays the country to have hurt." Then he replied to those critics who have been charging that Roosevelt is responsible for the panic. That he denied by saying: "The actions of the administration have not brought on business distress, but if it were true that to cut out rottenness from the body meant a momentary check to our unhealthy seeming prosperity, I should not for one moment hesitate to put the knife to the corruption."

At that the Republicans looked glum and the Democrats cheered again and again, as well they might. For here was the highest Republican authority acknowledging that Republican so-called prosperity was unhealthy and only seemingly prosperous. Whether the President had in mind that the tariff-protected trusts were prosperous at the expense of the tariff-taxed and trust-plundered people, or whether his mind was running on his former friend and "practical" political associate, Harriman, who as a malefactor of great wealth he now includes with "certain notorious railroad combinations," cannot be said with certainty, but to the assembled Republican Congressmen it sounded like the crack of doom and a perpetuation of the panic until after the election.

But the President said other things that cannot be indorsed by Democrats. He declared that: "Satisfactory control of corporations can only be obtained by the National Government" and "wider supervision of railroads by the Government both physical and financial operation." As many of the States have been able to reduce passenger rates and some have reduced freight rates without any aid from the Federal Government, and this State control is being enlarged with evident success under the principle of home rule and State rights, the proposition to hand over the entire control of corporations to the general Government cannot meet with Democratic approbation. Democrats will also disapprove the legalizing of pooling by the railroads.

It is true that Mr. Bryan has indorsed this centralizing program, if he is quoted correctly, but he is committed to "ultimate" Government ownership, and no doubt thinks that entire Federal control is but a step in that direction. Democrats generally have repudiated Mr. Bryan's proposal for Government ownership, and there is a strong feeling among the Democrats I have come in contact with since Mr. Bryan has indorsed the Roosevelt message that in doing so he has placed the Democratic party and himself in a subordinate position, and is content to seek the Democratic nomination as the only living echo of President Roosevelt. If Mr. Taft is nominated by the Republicans and Mr. Bryan should also be nominated, the paramount issue of the campaign would drift into who would best carry out "my policies." Can anyone doubt that the Republican candidate with the positive Roosevelt indorsement would have the better of his competitor? Democrats object to having the destinct policies of the party subordinated to many issues that Mr. Roosevelt is trying to make paramount, most of which are un-Democratic. The Republican efforts to control the trusts by fining them has proved to be a dismal failure as far as reducing trust-high prices is concerned, and that is what the people are interested in. The Democratic plan of reducing or abolishing the tariff protection the trusts enjoy is not included in the Roosevelt plan.

Hon. John Sharp Williams, the Democratic leader, repudiated the indorsement of the Roosevelt policies. He said the message was not deserving of an all-round eulogy upon the part of any man who loved Democratic institutions, and he then showed wherein many of the Roosevelt policies were un-Democratic. He outlined the Democratic program which would if enacted into law relieve the people instead of amusing them with denunciation of wealth malefactors who oppose "my policies."

TO FORM FAIR CIRCUIT.

North Georgia Counties All Much Interested in the Prospect.

Calhoun, Ga., Feb. 11.—Efforts are being made to form a north Georgia fair circuit with the following fairs and dates:

Northwest Georgia fair, Chickamauga, Ga., Oct. 6-10.

Whitfield County fair, Dalton, Ga., Oct. 12-17.

Gordon County fair, Cedartown, Ga., Oct. 20-24.

Polk County fair, Cedartown, Ga., Oct. 27-31.

By arranging the circuit better attractions can be secured and the fairs all along the line be benefited.

A force of hands has been at work on the fair grounds here for some time. A boulevard has been built around the grounds by United States road experts and the grounds thoroughly drained.

The baseball grounds are being rebuilt and lumber is being placed for the new grandstand.

The fair next fall promises to be the best one ever held in this county. Large premiums will be offered and a poultry building added.

LOCAL OPTION CONTINUES.

South Carolina Senate Kills Prohibition Measure.

Columbia, S. C., Feb. 11.—Perhaps the most important matter acted upon by the state senate during the week was the killing of the prohibition bill by a vote of 24 to 18, thus insuring the continuance of the county dispensary system, or local option law, known as the Carey-Cothran act, for at least another year. Prohibition had previously met defeat in the house by a vote of 62 to 51. There is, however, a proposition to submit the question of prohibition to the people in the primary next summer, a resolution to this effect having already been adopted in the senate. It is now up to the house and will be considered early next week.

Another important matter that the senate has acted upon is a bill providing for a limitation of the hours of work of railroad employees. As adopted the measure is practically the same as the newly enacted federal law, which provides that railroad employees shall not work more than sixteen hours out of twenty-four.

THE HUMAN STOMACH.

Many and Grievous Abuses to Which it is Subjected.

Many and grievous are the abuses to which the average person subjects the stomach. The wonder is, not that so many, but that so few stomachs smarting under provocation do not strike.

When the long-abused stomach does turn, life is made miserable by sick headaches, nervousness, distress after eating, sleeplessness, coated tongue, specks before the eyes, general debility and the many other symptoms of indigestion.

Then the weakened muscles of the stomach need strengthening with Mi-o-na. The use of this simple remedy for a few days strengthens the whole digestive system so that it can take care of all the food that is eaten without pain or distress. J. W. McCollum & C. sell Mi-o-na in 50-cent boxes under a guarantee to refund the money unless it does all that is claimed for it.

Comer Pardons Brooke.

Montgomery, Ala., Feb. 11.—H. Y. He will have to pay the fine, however. This is the extent of the punishment deserved, the governor thinks.

POLITICAL POT WILL SOON BE BOILING

Fire Was Kindled at Meeting in Jacksonville Tuesday.

MUCH INTEREST MANIFESTED

Several Candidates Present, and Both State and Congressional Meetings Were Well Attended—First Primary May 19, Second June 16.

Special to The Sun.

Jacksonville, Feb. 11.—The State Democratic Executive Committee met at the Aragon Hotel this morning, at which time Secretary Dodd read the call and called the roll, thirty-five members being present either in person or by proxy.

Owing to their political connections, the former being a candidate for United States Senator and the latter already holding office, Chairman D. U. Fletcher and Senator W. J. Bryan resigned as members of the committee, and Arthur T. Williams was chosen chairman of the committee. Four vacancies on the committee were filled by the election of Raymond D. Knight of Duval, S. J. Hilburn of Putnam, S. H. Blitch of Levy and C. O. Codrington of Volusia.

The first primary was ordered for May 19, the second for June 16.

Upon motion, a campaign committee was ordered, consisting of the chairman and secretary, and five members, to be appointed by the chairman, after which the committee adjourned subject to call.

The Congressional committee of the Second District met at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the Aragon, and issued a similar call for primaries.

Among those attending the meeting were Governor Broward, Candidates Stockton, Gilchrist and Brown, for Governor, Ellis for Attorney-General, and Dunn, for Railroad Commissioner. Chas. Dougherty, Hilson, Ames and others were also on hand.

THE GUARDS MINSTRELS.

Rehearsals Now Being Held, and Show Will be Given in March.

The Gainesville Guards Minstrels have been organized, and within a few weeks our people may have the opportunity of witnessing another first-class amateur minstrel performance.

The reputation of the Guards Minstrels is along high lines. A great deal of good musical talent is to be found in the company, which, together from the assistance outside, will make a fine show.

Those who comprise this minstrel are rehearsing regularly, and the entertainment will be pulled off during early March. The proceeds will be devoted towards equipping the new armory of the Guards with club features.

THE INSTALMENT PLAN

Some have criticised the instalment business as a menace to our people. Such indeed it may become when families are loaded up with diamonds, books and other articles of more or less a luxurious nature, when the weekly or monthly payments become a burden and finally the family sense of honor is crushed beneath the load. But the good the instalment business does far outweighs the bad. It is a pleasant contemplation for us to think of the thousands of homes we have had a hand in the establishing. It is pleasant to think that in these cases we have worked hand in hand with Cupid, and that but for the instalment business as we have conducted it, many a man would have continued to live in a hall-bedroom, and many a pretty maid to have wasted the beauty of her youth in waiting—waiting for the man of her choice to make his fortune.

THE EVOLUTION

Of Cod Liver Oil—The Latest and Most Valuable Form.

Early in the seventeenth century physicians became aware of the fact that the cods' livers and their oil contained medicinal elements of great value in the treatment of pulmonary, scrofulous, wasting diseases and chronic rheumatism.

In using cod liver oil in its original form they discovered that the oil, in which the valuable curative elements were embodied, was very objectionable, and of no medicinal value. How to separate or extract these medicinal properties of the cods' livers from the objectionable oil was the question.

After years of experimenting they produced three different and distinct kinds of cod liver oil, namely—the clear pale, the light brown and the brown. The clear pale was that which was first extracted from the cods' livers. The light brown was obtained by boiling the livers after the clear or pale oil had been extracted, and the brown oil was the result of pressing the residue.

None of these products, however, were free from the nauseating oil and no one of them contained all of the medicinal elements known to exist in the cod's liver. It remained for two eminent French chemists, Morgues and Gautier, to produce the perfect cod liver preparation. After twenty years of study and labor they discovered an extractive and concentrating process which enabled them to separate from the fresh cods' livers and their oil, all of the medicinal, healing and body-building elements, and discard the oil entirely, and it is by this process that Vinol is made.

To these valuable cod liver extractives is added peptonate of iron, which produces Vinol, a remedy unexcelled in the treatment of all pulmonary and wasting diseases, and to restore health and strength to feeble old people, delicate children and after sickness. We ask any such person in Gainesville to try Vinol on our guarantee to return the money if it fails to give satisfaction.—W. M. Johnson, Druggist, Gainesville, Florida.

THE GREENS IN TROUBLE.

Colored Man and Woman Arrested by Sheriff Fennell on Serious Charge.

Acting upon instructions from the authorities of Marion county, Sheriff Fennell has arrested Ed Green and Eugene Green, the latter being the wife of Dan Green, of Anthony.

The parties are in jail, but inasmuch as they are guilty of an offense here, Sheriff Fennell has not yet decided whether or not he would deliver them to the authorities of Marion county.

HEALTHY PLANTS

Require the Most Careful Attention as Well as Good Soil.

Did you ever see a rosebush which—despite the most beneficent environment of soil—of sunshine—and of atmosphere—seemed never to achieve a healthy growth.

A ton of manure will not help a plant that has a canker eating out its heart.

You must destroy the cause before you can remove the effect.

You cannot cure Dandruff and Baldness by rubbing on hair lotions, and rubbing in vaseline, etc.

You must look to the cause of the trouble—it's a germ at the roots of your hair which causes it to fall out.

Newbro's Herpicide destroys the germ, and healthy hair is the sure result.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

PRESIDENT MIGHT ACCEPT THIRD TERM

In Event Secretary Taft Cannot be Nominated.

EXTRACTS FROM HIS MESSAGE

President Says Actions of Administration Have Not Brought on Business Depression—Favors Governmental Control of Corporations.

Special Correspondence The Daily Sun.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 11.—There has been such a plethora of politics during the past week that only the major matters can be disposed of here. The principal event has been the special message of President Roosevelt to Congress, which has resulted in a great division of opinion among Republicans and somewhat among Democrats. The general trend of opinion is that the message is intended to promote a third term in case it appears that Secretary Taft cannot secure enough delegates to the National convention to nominate him. Some believe that a bold stroke will be attempted by the President, such as a "brush" between our fleet and that of Japan, so as to make his renomination imperative and so arouse public feeling on the "yellow peril" that the political danger of the third term would be lost in the shuffle.

For my own part I do not agree with these views of the selfishness of the President. I feel confident he is not figuring on a third term, and is only intent on perpetuating what he pleases to call "my policies." The great majority of the Republican members of Congress would have received the message in silence, but they were spurred on to rival the repeated Democratic demonstrations that accompanied its reading. The Democratic members generally do not indorse many of the policies advocated by President Roosevelt, but the glum looks of many of their Republican friends on the other side of the aisle as the potent points were read and which, as some Republicans said, was bound to prolong the panic, was too good a chance to be lost for ironical cheering.

That the President's message was a defiance of those who are opposing "my policies" and was intended to overwhelm some of those "greater Republicans" who have heretofore financed Republican campaigns, because they have now declared they will no longer do so, is apparent from the words of the President that: "The attacks upon the administration are made principally in the interest of the Standard Oil trust and of certain notorious railroad combinations." Then to arouse popular feeling the President further declared: "The extraordinary violence of the assaults upon the Government's policy and the enormous sums of money spent, evidence the terror the corrupt men of vast wealth feel in the very marrow of their being."

President Roosevelt is fighting for his political life against nine-tenths of the Republican leaders who are backed by "malefactors of great wealth," and this message of his was evidently intended to put those Republicans who are opposing him on the defensive by publicly denouncing those interests who are backing them in the fight for control of the party. The President has been so angered by the secret and open opposition that he let down the usual bars that guard executive utterances that would be likely to affect business disastrously. He defiantly said: "The business which is hurt by the movement for honesty is the kind of business which in the long run it pays the country to have hurt." Then he replied to those critics who have been charging that Roosevelt is responsible for the panic. That he denied by saying: "The actions of the administration have not brought on business distress, but if it were true that to cut out rottenness from the body meant a momentary check to our unhealthy seeming prosperity, I should not for one moment hesitate to put the knife to the corruption."

At that the Republicans looked glum and the Democrats cheered again and again, as well they might. For here was the highest Republican authority acknowledging that Republican so-called prosperity was unhealthy and only seemingly prosperous. Whether the President had in mind that the tariff-protected trusts were prosperous at the expense of the tariff-taxed and trust-plundered people, or whether his mind was running on his former friend and "practical" political associate, Harriman, who as a malefactor of great wealth he now includes with "certain notorious railroad combinations," cannot be said with certainty, but to the assembled Republican Congressmen it sounded like the crack of doom and a perpetuation of the panic until after the election.

But the President said other things that cannot be indorsed by Democrats. He declared that: "Satisfactory control of corporations can only be obtained by the National Government" and "wider supervision of railroads by the Government both physical and financial operation." As many of the States have been able to reduce passenger rates and some have reduced freight rates without any aid from the Federal Government, and this State control is being enlarged with evident success under the principle of home rule and State rights, the proposition to hand over the entire control of corporations to the general Government cannot meet with Democratic approbation. Democrats will also disapprove the legalizing of pooling by the railroads.

It is true that Mr. Bryan has indorsed this centralizing program, if he is quoted correctly, but he is committed to "ultimate" Government ownership, and no doubt thinks that entire Federal control is but a step in that direction. Democrats generally have repudiated Mr. Bryan's proposal for Government ownership, and there is a strong feeling among the Democrats I have come in contact with since Mr. Bryan has indorsed the Roosevelt message that in doing so he has placed the Democratic party and himself in a subordinate position, and is content to seek the Democratic nomination as the only living echo of President Roosevelt. If Mr. Taft is nominated by the Republicans and Mr. Bryan should also be nominated, the paramount issue of the campaign would drift into who would best carry out "my policies." Can anyone doubt that the Republican candidate with the positive Roosevelt indorsement would have the better of his competitor? Democrats object to having the destinct policies of the party subordinated to many issues that Mr. Roosevelt is trying to make paramount, most of which are un-Democratic. The Republican efforts to control the trusts by fining them has proved to be a dismal failure as far as reducing trust-high prices is concerned, and that is what the people are interested in. The Democratic plan of reducing or abolishing the tariff protection the trusts enjoy is not included in the Roosevelt plan.

Hon. John Sharp Williams, the Democratic leader, repudiated the indorsement of the Roosevelt policies. He said the message was not deserving of an all-round eulogy upon the part of any man who loved Democratic institutions, and he then showed wherein many of the Roosevelt policies were un-Democratic. He outlined the Democratic program which would if enacted into law relieve the people instead of amusing them with denunciation of wealth malefactors who oppose "my policies."

TO FORM FAIR CIRCUIT.

North Georgia Counties All Much Interested in the Prospect.

Calhoun, Ga., Feb. 11.—Efforts are being made to form a north Georgia fair circuit with the following fairs and dates:

Northwest Georgia fair, Chickamauga, Ga., Oct. 6-10.

Whitfield County fair, Dalton, Ga., Oct. 13-17.

Gordon County fair, Cedartown, Ga., Oct. 20-24.

Polk County fair, Cedartown, Ga., Oct. 27-31.

Gordon County fair, Calhoun, Ga., Oct. 20-24.

By arranging the circuit better attractions can be secured and the fairs all along the line be benefited.

A force of hands has been at work on the fair grounds here for some time. A boulevard has been built around the grounds by United States road experts and the grounds thoroughly drained.

The baseball grounds are being rebuilt and lumber is being placed for the new grandstand.

The fair next fall promises to be the best one ever held in this county. Large premiums will be offered and a poultry building added.

LOCAL OPTION CONTINUES.

South Carolina Senate Kills Prohibition Measure.

Columbia, S. C., Feb. 11.—Perhaps the most important matter acted upon by the state senate during the week was the killing of the prohibition bill by a vote of 14 to 18, thus insuring the continuance of the county dispensary system, or local option law, known as the Carey-Cothran act, for at least another year. Prohibition had previously met defeat in the house by a vote of 82 to 51. There is, however, a proposition to submit the question of prohibition to the people in the primary next summer, a resolution to this effect having already been adopted in the senate. It is now up to the house and will be considered early next week.

Another important matter that the senate has acted upon is a bill providing for a limitation of the hours of work of railroad employees. As adopted the measure is practically the same at the newly enacted federal law, which provides that railroad employees shall not work more than sixteen hours out of twenty-four.

THE HUMAN STOMACH.

Many and Grievous Abuses to Which it is Subjected.

Many and grievous are the abuses to which the average person subjects the stomach. The wonder is, not that so many, but that so few stomachs smarting under provocation do not strike.

When the long-abused stomach does turn, life is made miserable by sick headaches, nervousness, distress after eating, sleeplessness, coated tongue, specks before the eyes, general debility and the many other symptoms of indigestion.

Then the weakened muscles of the stomach need strengthening with Mi-o-na. The use of this simple remedy for a few days strengthens the whole digestive system so that it can take care of all the food that is eaten without pain or distress. J. W. McCollum & C. sell Mi-o-na in 50-cent boxes under a guarantee to refund the money unless it does all that is claimed for it.

He will have to pay the fine, however. This is the extent of the punishment deserved, the governor thinks.

POLITICAL POT WILL SOON BE BOILING

Fire Was Kindled at Meeting in Jacksonville Tuesday.

MUCH INTEREST MANIFESTED

Several Candidates Present, and Both State and Congressional Meetings Were Well Attended—First Primary May 19, Second June 16.

Special to The Sun.

Jacksonville, Feb. 11.—The State Democratic Executive Committee met at the Aragon Hotel this morning, at which time Secretary Dodd read the call and called the roll, thirty-five members being present either in person or by proxy.

Owing to their political connections, the former being a candidate for United States Senator and the latter already holding office, Chairman D. U. Fletcher and Senator W. J. Bryan resigned as members of the committee, and Arthur T. Williams was chosen chairman of the committee. Four vacancies on the committee were filled by the election of Raymond D. Knight of Duval, S. J. Hilburn of Putnam, S. H. Blitch of Levy and C. O. Codrington of Volusia.

The first primary was ordered for May 19, the second for June 16.

Upon motion, a campaign committee was ordered, consisting of the chairman and secretary, and five members, to be appointed by the chairman, after which the committee adjourned subject to call.

The Congressional committee of the Second District met at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the Aragon, and issued a similar call for primaries.

Among those attending the meeting were Governor Broward, Candidates Stockton, Gilchrist and Brown, for Governor, Ellis for Attorney-General, and Dunn, for Railroad Commissioner. Chas. Dougherty, Hilson, Ames and others were also on hand.

THE GUARDS MINSTRELS.

Rehearsals Now Being Held, and Show Will be Given in March.

The Gainesville Guards Minstrels have been organized, and within a few weeks our people may have the opportunity of witnessing another first-class amateur minstrel performance.

The reputation of the Guards Minstrels is along high lines. A great deal of good musical talent is to be found in the company, which, together from the assistance outside, will make a fine show.

Those who comprise this minstrel are rehearsing regularly, and the entertainment will be pulled off during early March. The proceeds will be devoted towards equipping the new armory of the Guards with club features.

THE INSTALMENT PLAN

Some have criticised the instalment business as a menace to our people. Such indeed it may become when families are loaded up with diamonds, books and other articles of more or less a luxurious nature, when the weekly or monthly payments become a burden and finally the family sense of honor is crushed beneath the load. But the good the instalment business does far outweighs the bad. It is a pleasant contemplation for us to think of the thousands of homes we have had a hand in the establishing. It is pleasant to think that in these cases we have worked hand in hand with Cupid, and that but for the instalment business as we have conducted it, many a man would have continued to live in a hall-bedroom, and many a pretty maid to have wasted the beauty of her youth in waiting—waiting for the man of her choice to make his fortune.

THE EVOLUTION

Of Cod Liver Oil—The Latest and Most Valuable Form.

Early in the seventeenth century physicians became aware of the fact that the cods' livers and their oil contained medicinal elements of great value in the treatment of pulmonary, scrofulous, wasting diseases and chronic rheumatism.

In using cod liver oil in its original form they discovered that the oil, in which the valuable curative elements were embodied, was very objectionable, and of no medicinal value. How to separate or extract these medicinal properties of the cods' livers from the objectionable oil was the question.

After years of experimenting they produced three different and distinct kinds of cod liver oil, namely—the clear pale, the light brown and the brown. The clear pale was that which was first extracted from the cods' livers. The light brown was obtained by boiling the livers after the clear or pale oil had been extracted, and the brown oil was the result of pressing the residue.

None of these products, however, were free from the nauseating oil and no one of them contained all of the medicinal elements known to exist in the cod's liver. It remained for two eminent French chemists, Morgues and Gautier, to produce the perfect cod liver preparation. After twenty years of study and labor they discovered an extractive and concentrating process which enabled them to separate from the fresh cods' livers and their oil, all of the medicinal, healing and body-building elements, and discard the oil entirely, and it is by this process that Vinol is made.

To these valuable cod liver extractives is added peptonate of iron, which produces Vinol, a remedy unexcelled in the treatment of all pulmonary and wasting diseases, and to restore health and strength to feeble old people, delicate children and after sickness. We ask any such person in Gainesville to try Vinol on our guarantee to return the money if it fails to give satisfaction.—W. M. Johnson, Druggist, Gainesville, Florida.

You cannot cure Dandruff and Baldness by rubbing on hair lotions, and rubbing in vaseline, etc.

You must look to the cause of the trouble—it's a germ at the roots of your hair which causes it to fall out.

Newbro's Herpicide destroys the germ, and healthy hair is the sure result.

Remarkable, isn't it, how the President and Governor Hughes agree with each other?

If a mishap or mischance rob you of a tenant, at an unseemly "season," let a classified ad. help you repair the damage.

"Time for backbone," says a headline in The Boston Traveler. Sure; for spareribs, cracklins, and real sausage, too.

One good way to locate an unsafe investment is to find out whether Mark Twain has been permitted to get in on the ground floor.

Tom Lawson wants to bet any part of $100,000 on Roosevelt for a third term. John W. Gates says he would take him up except that he hates a piker.

The Patent Office has just granted a patent on making paper out of sawdust. This is sure to have a serious effect on the breakfast-food industry.

President Roosevelt has changed his style of addressing his fellow-citizens, having dropped the "I" for the more regal "We" and "Our." What do his subjects think of it?

Boss Odell is nursing the Hughes boom, and "me too" Platt and Depew are also quite willing to let the Standard Oil interests dictate the Republican nomination for President.

The big manufacturers of the United States were in Washington a few days ago, ostensibly for tariff revision, but they were anxious to put it off for a while by advocating the commission route.

The Republican breach in the ranks of the G. O. P. of Ohio seems to be getting wide enough to make future trouble. Two Republican candidates for the Presidency would make the campaign really interesting.

There will be more contesting delegations in the coming Republican National Convention than ever before, and the swearing trains necessary after the convention is over will tax the capacity of the railroads.

The revenue of the Government fell off during January nearly $6,000,000. If such Republican prosperity keeps up the same pace there will be a deficiency of about $40,000,000 the end of the financial year on June 30.

Senator Jeff Davis admits that President Roosevelt in his late message to Congress has adopted the best of the policies proposed in his speech. From now on it will be a race for precedence between Jeff and Teddy, but Jeff will lead under the wire.

Three more large banks have failed in New York, and there is said to be trouble with others. Meanwhile a Republican Congress stands pat and is spending its time talking about comparative trifles. The Republican leaders who were so boastful and lordly when things were going their way are now afraid of their shadows, and stand in deadly fear of the political future in store for them.

THE GOVERNMENT GUARANTEE.

If the Government is to guarantee bank deposits, remarks The Wall Street Journal, why should not this principle be carried further? Is it wise to stop there?

If the Government is to guarantee a bank's creditors against the bank, why not guarantee the bank against the bank's debtors; in other words, guarantee loans as well as deposits?

But is it fair to put the Government's guarantee behind banks and withhold it from other lines of business? Why not guarantee newspapers the payment of subscriptions, and advertisers the sale of their wares, merchants against delinquent debtors, and buyers against being cheated in the merchandise they purchase?

Why not guarantee the stocks and bonds of corporations and the transactions in the exchanges?

Then the farmer must be safeguarded. Why not guarantee his crops? Surely something should be done for the women. Should not there be a compulsory insurance backed by the Government's guarantee, protecting wives against improvident or unfaithful husbands, and securing them adequate alimony in case of divorce?

Why not guarantee parents against deficient children, and children against cruel parents?

There ought to be no "privileged" classes in this guaranteeing business; so indeed, there is nothing that is more dangerous to a democracy than special privilege. Let us therefore be careful to apply this great principle of Government guarantee so that there shall be absolute equality. The laborer should have his wages guaranteed by the Government. Could anything be more important than thus to protect the toiling masses? Travelers should have a Government guarantee against railroad accidents. The actor should be guaranteed a ful' house, and the preacher his salary.

Surely, having done so much for all these people, we might give a little slice of protection even to the promoter. Why not Government guarantee of health, Government guarantee against old age, Government for sinners against eternal punishment?

In other words, why should anybody be troubled or worried about anything? Why not dump all personal responsibility upon the Government and let it guarantee everything for everybody, at every time and for all time, and then when war or disaster or panic comes we can all go down together in one colossal smash.

There is no better way to advertise Alachua county to the outside world than by making known what is accomplished on the farm, orchard, etc., the recent statement of Mrs. D. C. Hart of Micanopy, which appeared in The Sun showing what she had done in the way or raising chickens, has been reprinted in nearly every paper in the State and in several Northern papers. Let us have more such articles from other sections of the county.

The local newspaper is the most imposed upon institution in the world, but The Sun has the largest "dose" of the kind on its hands just now that it has ever had administered at one time. We'll attempt to swallow it at one "gulp" this time, but by all that's sacred we swear never to be thus imposed upon again.

What must the Democratic party do to win? asks The New York World. Nominate a ticket upon which all Democrats can unite.

It is just about as easy to use a want ad. as not to—and it makes the difference between the doer and procrastinator.

HUGHES AND THE TRUSTS.

In the financial column of The New York Journal of Commerce on January 25 it was said: "Downtown bankers are thinking of organizing to support Governor Hughes for the Presidency. He is ardently supported by Standard Oil, but he may not care to have this fact widely advertised."

As The Journal of Commerce is the most reliable authority of finance and business, no doubt the information that Governor Hughes is "ardently supported" by the Standard Oil trust influence is true. Where all the cash came from that elected him Governor has been a disputed question. Some said the Wall Street bankers furnished "the boodle," but as the Rockefeller interests are so ardently supporting Governor Hughes for the Presidency probably the same interests furnished the bulk of his campaign fund when running for Governor and will no doubt try to swamp the democracy with its millions if Governor Hughes is the Republican candidate for President. These Republican reformers have queer connections and will bear watching.

A few years ago Mary Garden, now the favorite of New York audiences, was an unknown little singer in Paris. She was almost in despair, although enrolled on the staff of the Opera Comique, when one night Rioton, the principal, was taken suddenly ill. The management was frantic. Miss Garden had studied the part of Louise. She was sent for, and, though she had never even sung with an orchestra, she showed her grit and went on. In ten minutes, says The Delineator for February, she had won the audience, and ever since she has been a favorite. Mary Garden was born in Aberdeen thirty years ago, and there is a fragmentary legend that one of her ancestors by the name of Gardyne sang for a queen of Scotland several centuries ago. And Mary, at one year of age, carried the tune of a hymn, and this before she could lisp a single baby word. When she was a child of six her father emigrated to this country, and Mary was taught the violin. Later a wealthy woman became interested in her and sent her to Paris. There she studied with famous masters, who predicted a brilliant future for her, and this prediction is now realized.

SHORT STATE ITEMS

Rev. Culpepper and son are conducting a religious meeting in Kissimmee this week.

A young man by the name of Cashmer was shot and killed by A. Irwin Lowman at Croom last Sunday.

Rodef Shalom, a Jewish temple, on the corner of Southard and Simonton streets, in Key West, was dedicated last Sunday.

The citizens of Dunnellon will soon erect a fine new fire station and are also contemplating the laying of a mile of cement sidewalks.

The Christian Advocate says that Rev. J. B. Ley, financial agent for Southern College, is meeting with much encouragement in raising the $110,000 endowment for the school.

Clearwater will soon have a fine new tourist hotel. C. W. Baxter, who was the proprietor of the Colonial Hotel which burned in St. Petersburg a short while ago, will erect a large tourist hotel at Clearwater in the near future.

The Fort Pierce Tribune speaks of C. H. Hooks of Jensen as the most successful fisherman on the East Coast, and says he recently made a haul in the ocean in one day that netted him $685. This catch consisted of 2,700 pounds of pompano and 5,600 pounds of bluefish—a truly extraordinary haul for one day.—Times-Union.

The St. Augustine correspondent to The Times-Union says at the present time the influx of travel to St. Augustine is enormous, and is daily on the increase. The hotel men report business excellent, many of them enjoying better patronage than they did on the corresponding date of last year. Every train from the North and West is coming in crowded, and not only St. Augustine but the entire East Coast is fast filling up.

His lease of life narrowing daily, Charles Powell, the negro murderer who, at the last term of the circuit court of St. Johns county was sentenced to death, is now looking forward with horror to his fate. A keener appreciation of his unenviable situation has been impressed upon him by the erection of the gallows in the jail yard. The windows of the jail overlook the grim scaffold, and Powell, who, up to a day or two ago, preserved an air of indifference, now realizes his doom and has written Governor Broward, begging mercy. He pleads that his sentence be commuted to life imprisonment, saying that he will, if his sentence is commuted, devote the remainder of his life repenting of his crime. He also claims that he acted in self-defense in slaying John Rogers, another colored man, last summer at Hannell. The evidence at the trial was to the effect that the murder was deliberate and unprovoked. Powell claims that the witnesses all perjured themselves. Powell is sentenced to hang on February 28.

Mrs. Nation's visit to Clearwater recently caused a clash between the authorities of that usually quiet and peaceful little city by the Gulf. It seems that upon her arrival at Clearwater she announced that she would speak from the band stand on one of the streets. To this declaration of intention, the mayor immediately filed a demurrer and waited for Carrie's answer. The city marshal notified her of the decision of the chief executive. However, she proceeded to the band stand and started one of her talks. Carrie's audacity was the limit, thought the mayor, who issued a warrant for her arrest, and ordered the marshal to place her under arrest. The marshal refused to comply with the mayor's orders, and instead surrendered his badge. This clash between the mayor and marshal happened in earshot of Carrie and her large audience, only a block away. Mrs. Nation finished her lecture, and held another at night on the veranda of the Verona Inn. Judging from the size of her audiences and the demonstrations attending her lectures, she evidently had the Clearwater people with her, and the papers of that section say that the mayor is still marooned in a sea of opposition.—Times-Union.

COMFORTING WORDS

Many a Florida Household Will Find Them So.

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed; to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. To tell how this great change can be brought about will prove comforting words to hundreds of Florida readers.

A. Oerting, seaman, of 419 L. street, Pensacola, Fla., tells how to do it. He says: "From my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills I can strongly recommend them to anyone in need of a good medicine for the kidneys. Kidney complaint and backache caused me suffering at intervals for years. The first or second attack I did not mind, but as time went by they grew worse and at times laid me up. I could hardly walk and it was a difficult matter to straighten up after stooping, while the kidney secretions were irregular and unnatural. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me. From personal experience I know that this remedy can be depended upon to fulfill the representations made for it."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

At the annual business meeting of the Ladies' Literary and Debating Society, held on Friday, the following officers were elected: Mrs. S. M. Caldwell, president; Mrs. J. A. Remmel, vice-president; Mrs. J. W. Johnson, secretary; Mrs. E. J. Whitehead, treasurer. At the next meeting Mrs. von Noszky will read a paper on "The Living Past."

Picnic at Rochelle.

Rochelle, Feb. 11.—On Saturday, February 8th, the young people of this place spent a very pleasant day at the creek, where they had a picnic and fishfry, and they succeeded in getting a large number of fine fish, enjoying themselves very much. On returning some stopped at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Shelley, where they played all kinds of games and had music. Upon leaving they thanked Mrs. Shelley, assuring her that they had passed a very pleasant evening.

2,000,000 CHILDLESS HOMES.

Race Suicide is Becoming As Prevalent In This Country As In France.

That this country is losing its instinct for parenthood, statistics seem to prove, says The Delineator. For instance, in every sixth home in Massachusetts today the baby has no place.

Nor is there any special reason to suppose that the situation in Massachusetts differs widely from that in her sister States. She has given us figures, has told the truth about herself more frankly than any other, that is all. However, let us allow that she is thirty per cent worse than all the rest. Still it will be true that there are in the United States two million married women who have no child.

We find in the new West, as well as in the historic East—this abolition of the child. On a recent visit to Iowa, that elysium of farmers, I came upon the same condition—less than two children to a family and a declining population in three-quarters of the counties.

This is Iowa—a State without a tenement or a slum; where the yellow corn of one year's growing is worth the revenue of the whole city of New York. Homes without babies—in a State where the homes are worth more than five thousand dollars apiece; where the banks hold a million of money for every day in the year; and where there is a square mile of country for every ten children to play in! At this rate we will soon have pushed France from her unenvied place, and be first among the nations as the land of the small family and the childless home!

Neglected Colds Threaten Life.

[From The Chicago Tribune.]

"'Don't trifle with a cold,' is good advice for prudent men and women. It may be vital in the case of a child. Proper food, good ventilation, and dry, warm clothing are the proper safeguards against colds. If they are maintained through the changeable weather of autumn, winter and spring, the chances of a surprise from ordinary colds will be slight. But the ordinary light cold will become severe if neglected, and a well established ripe cold is to the germs of diphtheria what honey is to the bee. The greatest menace to child life at this season of the year is the neglected cold." Whether it is a child or adult, the cold slight or severe, the very best treatment that can be adopted is to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is safe and sure. The great popularity and immense sale of this preparation has been attained by its remarkable cures of this ailment. A cold never results in pneumonia when it is given. For sale by all druggists.

Jolly Dancing Party.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sheffield, near Bevilleville, was the scene of much gaiety Friday evening, the occasion being a genuine old-fashioned dance, in which the Virginia reel and cotillion played prominent parts. There were about ninety-five present, which comprised most everybody in the thriving suburb and many from the city proper.

During the dancing hours, beautiful piano music was rendered by Miss Cora Wittstock, in her useful and graceful manner, which was appreciated by all. Also, refreshments were served from 10 to 11 o'clock, and it is needless to add that the young folks enjoyed the occasion immensely.

CHARGES OF EMBEZZLEMENT

California Finds a Way to Hold Read, Wanted in China.

Washington, Feb. 11.—Some time ago the state department was informed that William C. Read, an American citizen in business in Manchuria, had embezzled $8,500 from a concern in Mukden. The California authorities arrested Read when he arrived at San Francisco early this week.

It was found that Read could not be held to answer the charge of embezzlement owing to the absence of an extradition treaty between China and America. A way has been found to bring Read to trial by having recourse to the California state law prohibiting any person from bringing stolen or embezzled funds into the state and he will be tried on that charge.

I sent my mother away to shoot myself."

TEN MINERS KILLED.

Fatal Explosion in Mine at Port Hood, Nova Scotia.

Port Hood, N. S., Feb. 10.—Further details say that six coal miners and four loaders were crushed to death as the result of an explosion in the Port Hood mine of the Port Hood Richmond Railway and Coal company.

Whether the explosion was due to gas, fire damp or gun powder remains to be determined by a coroner's jury.

The accident occurred about 7:30 Friday morning, soon after the day's work had begun. The explosion was in the south level, and the six miners and four loaders were buried under tons of soft coal that were loosened by the explosion.

Practically every man of the 300 miners employed in the pit volunteered for rescue duty. As the rescuing parties progressed into the mine no gas was met nor was there any evidence of after-damp, and as a result the rescue work was facilitated.

With the exception of the four Bulgarian loaders all the victims were natives of this place and were descendants of the Highland Scotchmen who settled Cape Breton. All were well known and the scenes at the bankhead when the bodies were brought, one by one, to the surface, were distressing.

The property damage was slight.

KILLED FATHER BY MISTAKE.

Misunderstanding About Horse Trade Leads to Fatal Results.

Commerce, Ga., Feb. 10.—As a result of a fight at Hix, six miles east of this place, in Madison county, on Thursday evening, one man is dead and another may die.

The details as reported here are as follows: Nat Bone and his son, Lem, met J. H. E. Martin at a country store. There had been some misunderstanding about a horse trade. The matter was brought up between Mr. Bone and Mr. Martin, when a quarrel ensued. Finally the two engaged in a fight.

During the fight it is said that Martin struck Bone with an iron wedge, whereupon Lem Bone came to the rescue of his father, drew his pistol and fired at Martin, but instead of hitting Martin the ball struck his father in the head and ploughed its way through the brain, from the result of which he died in a few hours.

Lem Bone fired at Martin the second time, and the ball entered the small of the back, barely missing the spinal cord. Martin is paralyzed on that side, and is in a critical condition.

Martin and Bone are neighbors, and are both about sixty years of age.

CARDINAL GIBBONS' VIEWS.

Catholic Churchman is Interviewed on Prohibition Question.

New Orleans, La., Feb. 10.—Cardinal Gibbons, in an interview on prohibition, published Saturday, says:

"I am persuaded that it is practically impossible to put prohibition into effect in any large community and the best means therefore to promote temperance is to limit the number of saloons by high license. I would be in favor of inflicting severe punishment on proprietors of saloons who violated the law, in the first instance, and in the second violation, I would withdraw the license altogether.

"In country places I would suggest local option as an excellent means for the repression of intemperance, if, in the judgment of the majority of voters the sale of liquor should not be entirely eliminated.

"Laws like prohibtion that are certain to be violated, had best not be made, for incessant violation draws down upon them disrespect."

"We prefer Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to any other for our children," says Mr. L. J. Woodbury of Twinning, Mich. "It has also done the work for us in hard colds and croup, and we take pleasure in recommending it." For sale by all druggists.

Prominent Merchant Dead.

Montgomery, Ala., Feb. 10.—A. S. Knowles, head of the Knowles dry goods company, for years a leading merchant and citizen, died Thursday night of tuberculosis. Trips to the west failed to give him relief and he came back and fought it out, working in his office to within a few days of the end.

JUDGE HARGIS' FUNERAL.

With Sobs Son Looks Upon Face of Dead Father.

Jackson, Ky., Feb. 11.—Beach Hargis, who shot and killed his father, Judge James Hargis, on Thursday, was permitted to stand by the coffin and look at the face of the dead.

Turning his head away with smothered sobs, the son knelt by the body and murmured: "Lord have mercy."

While he was kneeling his mother came into the room and knelt by his side.

They remained for only a short time, when the son returned to the jail. He did not attend the funeral.

Many friends and relatives of Judge Hargis came to Jackson for the funeral. A large crowd from the country districts also gathered here.
